

Andrea Sucre

Av.12 calle 34 Urb. Doral Norte Villa Canarias• Maracaibo, Zulia Venezuela 4002
Telephone: +0584140593743 • Email: therootislove@gmail.com

AS

Objective

My goal as an artist is to create a spiritual growth through and audiovisual experience.

Experience

Created first album "The Root is Love"

February-August 2015

The music inspiration emerged from a spiritual retreat in The Isha center in Uruguay, that then was produced by Tommy Leb in Venezuela.

Created my brand Fleur Rebelle

August 03 2015

I began to fuse art with fashion, using digitalized images of my paintings to be printed on shirts that I designed. The clothing brand was a big success and all the woman and men shirts were sold.

Aire The Musical

2015-2016

I had a protagonist role dancing, acting and singing in a musical based on the songs of "Mecano" a Spanish band from the 80's. During the pre production of the show, I had strict theatrical discipline, expression workshops and ballet classes. We had several dates for the performances, starting the tour in Maracaibo at the "Teatro Bellas Artes" on the 16,17 and 18 of October 2015, petitioned by the public we continued it on December 20,21, 23 and ending it on June 2016 flying to the Capital city of Caracas to performed in The Central university of Caracas filling the auditorium of more then 1500 seats. This musical was recognized nationally and was a success during a difficult economic and social crisis in Venezuela.

First Performance

March 17 2015

My first performance was in "Murano" a distinguished restaurant in Maracaibo, were I played my original songs for the first time in public.

Band The Root is Love

May 19 2016

During three months I rehearsed with my band "The Root is Love" to performed live on a bohemian restaurant called Nutopia.

Work as a Designer

January-May 2017

Began to work as a part time job designer for Mcdonalds, making posters and advertisement for local sales.

Studies

High School Carrer

May 25 2012

Graduated from Sagemont School in Weston Florida having honor classes, after curricular activities as the President of the Art club and having outstanding grade of my AP art portfolio class.

Summer at RISD

June-August 2012

Studied at Rhode Island School of Design during the summer session developing my art technics in oil painting, color theory, perspective and figure drawing classes.

Visual Arts Major*January-June 17 2013

Began to study visual arts at the Miami Art Institute

Currently studying Graphic Design2014-2017

Due to the Economic, Political and social crisis in Venezuela, I had to move back to my country. I am currently finishing my 10th trimester as a graphic design major at the Rafael Belloso University.

Knowledge

I spent 7 months in a spiritual retreat center in 2015 in Uruguay called "The Isha Center Consciousness Spa" where I intensively meditated for long hours and developed my inner peace. This course gave me the inner experience of love and peace that I know teach through an interactive, audio visual work shop to help people around the world be happier, live better and love themselves more.